HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 3 BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

A JOINT MEMORIAL

TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, THE UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR TO THE REPUBLIC OF TURKEY, THE AMBASSADOR OF THE REPUBLIC OF TURKEY TO THE UNITED STATES, TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED AND TO THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION REPRESENTING THE STATE OF IDAHO IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

We, your Memorialists, the House of Representatives and the Senate of the State of Idaho assembled in the First Regular Session of the Sixty-third Idaho Legislature, do hereby respectfully represent that:

WHEREAS, The Orthodox Christian Church, in existence for nearly 2,000 years, numbers approximately 300 million members worldwide with more than two million members in the United States; and

WHEREAS, since 1453, the continuing presence of the Ecumenical Patriarchate in Turkey has been a living testament to the religious coexistence of Christians and Muslims; and

WHEREAS, this religious coexistence is in doubt because the Ecumenical Patriarchate is considered a minority religion by the Turkish government; and

WHEREAS, there were millions of Orthodox Christians living in Turkey at the turn of the 20th century and there remain fewer than 3,000 of the Ecumenical Patriarch's flock in Turkey today; and

WHEREAS, Orthodox Christians in Idaho and throughout the United States stand to lose their spiritual leader; and

WHEREAS, where there have been difficulties in the past with the relationship of the Orthodox Christian Church and the Turkish government, certain recent actions by the Turkish government suggest an interest in improving its relationship with and treatment of the Orthodox Christian Church, which actions are acknowledged and welcomed; and

WHEREAS, the people of Idaho desire to encourage the continued dialogue and communication of the leadership of the Turkish government and the Orthodox Christian Church, as demonstrated by recent high-level meetings between Turkish officials and the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-third Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that we urge the government of Turkey to: uphold and safeguard religious and human rights of all its citizens without compromise; grant the Ecumenical Patriarch appropriate international recognition, ecclesiastical succession, and the right to train clergy of all nationalities; and respect the property rights and human rights of the Ecumenical Patriarchate and all religious and faith traditions.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be, and she is hereby authorized and directed to forward a copy of this Memorial to the President of the United States, the United States Ambassador to the Republic of Turkey, the Ambassador of the Republic of Turkey to the United States, to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of Congress and the congressional delegation representing the State of Idaho in the Congress of the United States.

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 4 BY STATE AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

A JOINT MEMORIAL

TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED AND TO THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION REPRESENTING THE STATE OF IDAHO IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

We, your Memorialists, the House of Representatives and the Senate of the State of Idaho assembled in the First

Regular Session of the Sixty-third Idaho Legislature, do hereby respectfully represent that:

WHEREAS, the opening words to the Constitution of the United States, "We the People," are by deliberate design and with intent to define the governing authority of our United States and the states within our republic and the authority that resides with the people; and

WHEREAS, the people of the State of Idaho on November 7, 2006, cast their votes on a proposal referred by the Idaho Legislature to amend the Constitution of the State of Idaho to define marriage, and the amendment passed with a wide majority; and

WHEREAS, in 1888, the Supreme Court of the United States stated that marriage is "an institution, in the maintenance of which in its purity the public is deeply interested, for it is the foundation of the family and of society, without which there would be neither civilization nor progress"; and

WHEREAS, in 1942, the Supreme Court of the United States stated that marriage is "fundamental to the very existence and survival of the race"; and

WHEREAS, Luther Martin, framer of the Constitution of the United States and Attorney General of Maryland, stated, "A knowledge of Mankind, and of Legislative affairs cannot be presumed to belong in a higher degree to the Judges than to the Legislature"; and

WHEREAS, the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit recognizes that the Constitution of the United States does not demand that a redefinition of marriage be forced upon the states, stating, "What we are left with is this: By creating a status (marriage) and by subsidizing it (e.g., with tax-filing privileges and deductions), the States created an incentive for two people who procreate together to stay together for purposes of rearing offspring. That does not convict the States of irrationality, only of awareness of the biological reality that couples of the same sex do not have children in the same way as couples of opposite sexes and that couples of the same sex do not run the risk of unintended offspring. That explanation, still relevant today, suffices to allow the States to retain authority over an issue they have regulated from the beginning."

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the First Regular Session of the Sixty-third Idaho Legislature, the House of Representatives and the Senate concurring therein, that we call upon the United States Congress to bring clarity to the principle that the role of the United States judiciary is to interpret as close to original intent as possible and rule on compliance with the original intent of the Constitution by the executive and legislative branches and the principle that judges of the United States judiciary should keep their oath of office to uphold the law and not make or change the law.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a judge of the United States judiciary who disregards his oath of office to uphold the Constitution should be impeached by Congress.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be, and she is hereby authorized and directed to forward a copy of this Memorial to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of Congress, and to the congressional delegation representing the State of Idaho in the Congress of the United States.

HJM 3 and HJM 4 were introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee for printing.

SCR 103, by Judiciary and Rules Committee, was introduced, read the first time by title, and referred to the Judiciary, Rules, and Administration Committee.

There being no objection, the House returned to the Fifth Order of Business.
